   (c) Contributory Provident Fund-cum-Gratuity Scheme (Appendix B) shall be vested in the Board of Management.

(2) The provisions of this Statute shall be deemed to have come into effect from 20th September, 1985. The provisions relating to pension including extraordinary pension and gratuity made in the Schemes shall, however, come into effect with effect from 1.1.1986.

Definitions

(3) In these schemes, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context.

   (a) “employee” means any person appointed by the University as a member of its staff and includes teachers and other academic staff of the University.

   (b) “emoluments” means the pay as defined in clause 3(h), dearness pay which the employee was receiving immediately before his retirement or on the date of his death. It also includes interim relief and ad hoc dearness allowance for the purpose of retirement pension and gratuity.
Note

(1) In respect of persons who have come over to the revised scales of pay introduced w.e.f. 1.1.86, emoluments mean basic pa only from that date.

(2) If an employee immediately before his retirement or relinquishment of service, has been absent from duty on leave with allowances, his emoluments for purposes of calculating service gratuity/or death or retirement gratuity shall be taken as what he would have drawn had he not been absent from duty:

Provided that the amount of gratuity is not increased on account of increase in pay not actually drawn and that the benefit of higher officiating or temporary pay is given only if it is certified that he would have continued to hold the higher officiating or temporary appointment but for his proceeding on leave.

(3) Pay drawn by an employee while on foreign service shall not be treated as emoluments but the pay which he would have drawn under the University had he not been on foreign service shall alone be treated as emoluments.

(4) Pay includes the pay drawn on tenure appointment(s).

(c) “Average Emoluments” means the average of the emoluments as defined above calculated in respect of the last ten months of serves:

Provided that if, during the last 10 months of service, a person has been absent from duty on leave without allowances or suspended under such circumstances that the period of suspension does not count as service, the period so passed shall be disregarded in the calculation of average emoluments and an equivalent period prior to 10 months being included.

(d) “family” for the purpose of General Provident Fund and Contributory Provident Fund means:

(i) in the case of male subscriber, the wife or wives and children of a subscriber and the widow or widow and children of a deceased son of the subscriber; provided that if a subscriber proves that his wife has been judicially separated from him or has ceased under the customary law of the community to which she belongs to be entitled to maintenance, she shall henceforth be deemed to be no longer a member of the subscriber’s family in matters to which these rules relate, unless the subscriber subsequently intimates in writing to the Finance Officer that she shall continue to be regarded;

(ii) in the case of female subscriber, the husband and children of a subscriber and the window or windows and children of a deceased son of a subscriber provided that if a subscriber by notice in writing to the Finance Officer expresses her desire to exclude her husband from her family, the husband shall henceforth be deemed to be no longer a member of the subscriber’s family in matters to which these rules relate, unless the subscriber subsequently cancels such notice in writing.

Note

Child means legitimate child and includes an adopted child where adoption is recognized by the personal law governing the subscriber.

(e) “Finance Officer” means Finance Officer of the University.

Explanation I Counting of period of leave as qualifying service:

(i) All periods of leave with pay and allowances shall count as qualifying service.

(ii) The period spent on deputation or training or deputation for any special purpose including periods of travel to and from the country of deputation, shall count as qualifying service; provided that if the employee has availed himself of any extraordinary leave without allowances during the period of deputation, the period of such extraordinary leave shall be excluded except as provided under Note below sub-clause (ii) of Explanation II.

Explanation II Periods not counting as qualifying service:

(i) Time passed under suspension by a member of the staff pending inquiry into his conduct where on conclusion of the inquiry he has not been fully exonerated or the suspension is not held to have been wholly unjustified; unless the Board of management expressly declares at the time that it shall count, and then it shall count only to such extent as the Board of management may declare.

(ii) Extraordinary leave without allowances.

Note

Extraordinary leave may be allowed to count at the discretion of the appointing authority in the following circumstances:

(1) if it is taken on appointment in another University institution or any other Authority and that University Institution/Authority or ‘the person concerned makes necessary contribution towards his pension;

(2) it is taken on medical certificates;
(3) if it is taken due to the inability of the person concerned to join or rejoin duty due to civil commotion or a natural calamity or any other cause beyond his control provided that he has no other type of leave to his credit; and

(4) if it is taken for academic pursuits directly connected with the teaching/research job of the employees in the University.

(iii) Unauthorised absence in continuation of authorized leave of absence.

(iv) Service below the age of 18 years.

Explanation III

Addition to qualifying service:

An employee may add to his service qualifying for superannuation pension but not for any other class of pension the actual period not exceeding one-fourth of full length of his service or the actual period by which his age at the time of recruitment exceeds twenty-five years or a period of five years, whichever is least, if the post is one:

(a) for which Post-Graduate Research or specialist qualifications or experience in scientific, technological or professional field is essential; and

(b) to which candidates of more than twenty-five years of age are normally recruited.

Provided that this concession shall not be admissible to any such employee unless his actual decision to grant this concession shall be taken by the Board of Management at the time of recruitment of the employee.

Explanation IV

(a) The Board of Management may, by order condone interruption in service up to a period of one year under the following circumstances:

(i) The interruption should have been caused by reasons beyond the control of the employees;

(ii) The total service excluding one or more interruptions, if any, should not be less than five years duration;

(iii) The interruption, including two or more interruptions, if any should not exceed one year.

(k) “special pay” means an addition in the nature of pay to the emoluments of a post or of a person granted in consideration of the specially arduous nature of his duties or of a specific addition to his work or responsibility.

(l) “tenure post” means a permanent post which an individual may not hold for more than a limited period.
